Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Road Soon to Be in Running Order.

VIRGINIAN IS BUYING CARS

C. D. Wayne Becomes Assistant General Passenger Agent of Seaboard—What Hill Says.

The clear skies of the past few days has been of great advantage to the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railway. The work on the new line between here and Ashland, which has been greatly delayed by unfavorable weather, is being pushed forward by large forces of hands. The depot at this end and at Ashland are being rushed to completion, and the forces stringing the trolley wire are being worked to the limit.

The hands following the construction train in the work of ballasting are doing everything in their power to have the track in good condition for the cars as soon as the trolley wire is ready. The management has met with so much unfavorable weather to retard the work it is not willing to announce a specific day, but an outsider witnessing the rapidity with which the remaining work is being done, is not far wrong to predict that by the 15th of July the cars will be running on schedule time.

Promotion on Seaboard.

Mr. C. D. Wayne, who for the past several years has been the chief clerk in the office of C. B. Ryan, general passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line, has been appointed assistant general passenger agent, with headquarters in Portsmouth. Mr. Wayne entered upon the discharge of his new duties on July 1st.

Virginia Buying Cars.

The Virginia Railway, better known as the Tidewater road, has placed orders with the Western Steel Car and Foundry Company for freight and passenger cars to be built and delivered at once. The company has already received from the manufacturers a number of passenger cars and about fifty freight cars, which are being operated on the sections of the line upon which the track has been recently completed.

Railroads of the World.

The statistics of the railroads of the world published in the June number of the Archiv für Eisenbahnen contains the mileage of the several continents as follows: Europe, 192,251; Asia, 56,593; Africa, 16,528; total, 255,372 miles. North America, 254,098; South America, 32,559; Australia, 17,441; total, 302,398 miles, making a grand total of 557,770 miles in the whole world at the end of 1905, or the nearest date for which reports are made. This is an increase of 12,525 miles, or 2.2 per cent, over the previous year, and is the smallest increase since 1900, it having varied since 1898 from 10,800 miles in 1900 to 16,754 in 1904, while the total additions to the world's mil-age since 1898 have been 95,818 miles, an average of 13,685 miles yearly.

Of the increase, in 1905, a little more than one-half was in America, 5,891 miles in North America and 426 in South America (including the West Indies). Canada is credited with 590 miles, against 542 the year before, but in Mexico the additions were but 150 miles in 1905, against 1,720 in 1904.
In South America, Argentina opened 337 miles, Peru 29, Brazil 26 and the other additions were 12 miles in the West Indies.

of the Northwest, is quoted as follows:

WITHOUT RELIEF

Friend Recommended Cuticura—

GLADLY RECOMMENDS
CUTICURA TO ALL

"I have had eczema for over fifteen years, and have tried all sorts of remedies to relieve me, but without avail. I stated my case to one of my friends and he recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I bought them with the thought that they would be unsuccessful, as with the others.
But after using them for a few weeks I noticed to my surprise that the irritation and peeling of the skin gradually decreased, and finally, after using five cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment it disappeared entirely. I feel now like a new man, and I would gladly recommend these remedies to all who are afflicted with skin diseases. David Blum, Box A, Bedford Station, N. Y., Nov. 6, 1905."

Little Son Had Eczema

"My son when four years of age had eczema on his body and limbs and suffered badly. Cuticura Remedies were recommended to me and I gave the complete treatment a trial and at the end of the third month my son was cured.
I cannot say too much in praise of Cuticura Remedies and am always ready to recommend them to others. Mrs. G. H.
Conant, Box 811, Rockland, Mass., Dec.
14, 1905."

needs of the railroads. The public in its exasperation will demand that the railroads shall pay certain rates and aid more cars. The railroads will answer that they cannot; that their credit is ruined. The government will be obliged to step in and lend "a situation might lead to government ownership of railroads. That would be the end of Republican government."

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Market Fairly Strong, Though Business Is Curtailed.

Richmond traders watched the ticker yesterday with something more than the usual interest. Somehow they were fearing a setback from the better news that has come forth for a week past, and there were pessimists in the "gangs" who appeared disappointed that their fearful forebodings were not realized. The stock market, though not nearly as broad in its strength as it seems as it was on the day previous, might be described as fairly strong throughout yesterday.

There is no doubt, however, that the manipulation was largely professional. In afternoon, on the increased rate for money, the disposition of dealers to take profits and the continued hammering of the bear, the market grew somewhat weaker and prices sagged a little. A New York correspondent described the situation as a "bear-market" and he added: "It looks as if it was going to sell off and the traders sell stocks short, then when they try to cover the market comes right back. Those who were long of stocks, noticing the setback, have been cashing in some profits. The market takes these moves well, and I think the bull interest will put stocks higher later this week."

James J. Hill, the railroad magnate of the Northwest, is quoted as follows:

Daily Court Record

Hustings Court.
In this court yesterday John Henry, a negro, was convicted of housebreaking, and given five years in the penitentiary. The negro confessed his crime. He broke into a store and stole clothing of the value of $250. His confession probably saved him a longer term.

Chancery Court.
The following qualifications were had in this court yesterday: Lucius D. Carter qualified as administrator of Lettie M. Alley, deceased. The estate is valued at $300.
Henry F. Grimmon qualified as guardian of Ruth Linwood Hottes and Walter Hottes, infants.

Law and Equity Court.
This court was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday with the trial of the suit of Brouer vs. Southern Railway, for $4,000. The suit grew out of delay in transporting cattle from Spence, N. C., to Richmond and consequent injury to the cattle from alleged failure to feed and water them. The defendant's counsel raised several questions of law, and the court, in the case, Attorney B. Rand, Weidner represents the plaintiff, and J. Randolph Williams, of Hunt and Williams, Williams & Anderson, the defendant.

porting board of the Bureau of Agriculture spondents and agents of the bureau with 70.5 on May 25, 1907; 83.3 on July tion on June 25th of this year and

DISCOVER NEST OF
SMALLPOX PATIENTS

found at the home of Mrs. Wilcher, 1123 North Twenty-seventh Street, who has three children, two of whom are children, Clyde, about two years and a half ago, broke out thickly, and a doctor pronounced his case chicken-pox, and made no return to the health board. It was shown that Mrs. Satterwhite had visited at the Wilcher house at the time that Clyde had the disease. The other four children of Mrs. Wilcher, namely, Roland, Baker, aged four years, and Bayard, aged eight months, both broke out with smallpox. The case was not reported, and both recovered. Neither had been vaccinated. The other persons living in the same house, all of whom had been vaccinated, had no trouble.

At 1107 North Twenty-seventh Street, at the home of James New, Mrs. New was stricken. Her face became badly swollen, evidently the result of confluent smallpox. She had never been vaccinated. Her boy, Everett, had an eruption, and later, when he was taken to have had it, although in this case there is no trace of an eruption. Another child, Rubie, had been vaccinated at school and has not been sick.

This last house the health officer regard as being responsible for several other cases. Mrs. New is related to the Willard family on Q Street, who were taken to the smallpox hospital some weeks ago. Mr. New is employed in the Locomotive Works, where several cases have been found during the past weeks. The little daughter of Mrs.
Thomas New, of 1111 North Twenty-seventh Street, was also taken to the hospital, and it was shown that she had a slight eruption a few weeks ago.
The doctors could not say whether this was a case of smallpox or not, but that was an old man, having never been vaccinated.

In tracing the other case laid bare by the application of the two men for medical aid, it was learned that Mr.
George East, of No. 1002 North Twenty-seventh Street, was also taken to the hospital. Mr. East had never been vaccinated. Mrs. Cullins, of Norfolk, has been visiting in the East house. She suffered from a case of confluent smallpox six years ago, and is badly marked. She advised Mr.
East and Mr. Satterwhite to consult a doctor, recognizing their symptoms as being like her own case, and realizing that the best chance of recovery great relief, as well as in a large measure prevent the disfigurement by proper treatment.

Several vaccinators of the Board of Health were sent into the infected district yesterday, and six houses were thoroughly fumigated. The investigation, all the cases discovered have been very mild ones. The smallpox hospital operated by the city is a substantial frame building, and is not unlike a prosperous country farmhouse, with an out-house for colored patients. The City Smallpox Hospital is in charge as resident physician, and there are a sufficient number of immune nurses in attendance. The experience of those who have been in the hospital is that they receive the best of treatment, the city making every provision for the comfort of the patients.

Notwithstanding the repeated warnings in the newspapers, and the almost annual recurrence of cases of smallpox in various parts of the city, and the advice of physicians of all schools, it is remarkable how many grown people and children in the city have never been vaccinated. Vaccination has been shown to be an absolute preventive, not a single one of the recent cases having ever been vaccinated, and vaccinated people living in the same house have been immune. In the history of the City Smallpox Hospital there has been but one case of a patient who had never been vaccinated, and that was an old man, having never seventy, who had been vaccinated once when a boy.

Failure to Report.

The City Council appropriated an emergency fund of $250 on Monday night for vaccination and the expenses of the Smallpox Hospital, and since the fund of the Health Board for this purpose are exhausted, there is no reason to believe that the Board of Hygiene will fail to agree to the appropriation.

It is surprising how many of the cases have passed unrecognized by the physicians, many of whom have only called the disease chickenpox. The Health Board has not yet decided whether it will take against the physicians who have failed to report the City Smallpox cases. A fine is prescribed

GIRL WHO BALKED
FORCED TO ALTAR

Kept Wedding Feast Waiting Until Relatives Took Her Up and Put Her in Cab.

CHESTER, Pa., July 2.—Just as she was about to step into a cab to be driven to St. Hedwig's Polish Catholic Church, at Fourth and Hayes Streets, where she was to be made the wife of Joseph Stenshalski, Annie Arly, barked, declaring that she had changed her mind and did not want to marry Joseph or any one else.

But everything was ready for the celebration; the liquids were ready to be tapped and the guests had assembled for the expected feast, which must be called off if there was no wedding.
Annie continued to demur, however, and kept Joseph waiting at the church until four of her stalwart relatives gathered her up, placed her in the cab, and ordered the driver to hurry to the church, half a dozen squares away.

Without giving the astonished bride-elect time to make further objections she was carried to the altar, where the priest and bridegroom were waiting, and the vows were said.
Then the newly-wedded pair were driven to their home, where the fun of celebrating the happy event began and continued until daylight this morning.

NO HOUSE FOR NEGRO.

That's Why B. T. Washington Isn't at Mammothrock.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Maybe next year Booker T. Washington will be able to lease a house for the summer in the best section of Mammothrock instead of at Oyster Bay. But this year, though the summer was somewhat backward, and there are yet many fine Colonial houses at Mammothrock to rent, he was apparently willing to lease to Washington his house in that town.
He thought to be generously paid for this summer, so Washington sought a summer house at Oyster Bay, and just the kind of house he wanted was quickly found for him there.

One of the persons who positively refused to lease a Mammothrock house to Washington was W. E. G. Galliard, president of one of the largest realty companies of this city. Mr. Galliard is an ardent admirer of the famous negro teacher, and he hopes he has not offended Washington or any of his many admirers in quickly returning the money paid to a man who signed for Washington a lease to a Mam-mothrock house.

"I was extremely sorry that this transaction has become public," said Mr. Galliard yesterday. "The publicity hurts my feelings probably more than it does the feelings of the able head of Tuskegee Institute. I have many valuable property interests in Mammoth-rock to protect, and in this matter Washington surely knows."

"I had to act just as a trustee of an estate would. He evidently saw it in that light, too, for his representative and I parted in a most friendly way.
A peculiar coincidence is that Mr.
Galliard is not only a great admirer of Washington, but is at present championing the cause of Hebrews, who have been denied apartments in some of the best hotels of this city.
So energetically has he entered into this fight that the following advertisement of his realty corporation appeared yesterday in one of the leading Jewish papers:

"The firm numbers among its patrons many of the most prominent Jewish families of New York, and since its inception the firm has valued no class of patronage in higher esteem."

LOVER, ACCEPTED, DIES OF JOY.

Man of 40 Had Just Proposed to a Widow of 40.

WEBB CITY, Mo., July 2.—Jesse V.
Gray, 40 years of age, for a nine years old, proposed last night at midnight to Rachel Barrow, a widow forty years old, and was accepted.

Gray spent the night at the home of J. A. Wright, father of Mrs. Barrow. He died before morning, and Coroner Baird says death was due to heart disease, probably due to joy occasioned by the acceptance of his proposal.

$2,500,000 for Estate.

LONDON, July 2.—Baron de Forest, who inherited most of the late Baron Hirsch's fortune, has died no less than $2,500,000 for Stowe, the princely seat of the Duke of Buckingham. With the exception of Holkham Hall, Lord Lotcester's Norfolk place, Stowe is probably the largest house in England. It was built by the first Duke of Devonshire in 1804. Stowe House has many associations. Queen Victoria visited there in 1815, and planted an oak tree. The prince consort planted two cedars in the beautiful gardens.
The property consists of about 10,000 acres.

city upon Richard Croker, whose horse, 1st.

leave the election of a successor to the next State Convention, directing the secretary, Alex. J. Fields, to perform any chairmanship duties that may arise in the meantime.

The State Commissioner of Insurance to-day approved an amendment to the charter of the Southern Life and purpose of which is to mutualize the company, and provide that no part of reached fifty cents per thousand on insurance carried shall go into the capital stock. E. P. Whorton is president of the company.

The Wake county commissioners today unanimously re-elected V. Judd Granberry yesterday, was placed in Rowan jail to-day to await trial. He talks freely of the killing, declaring that he shot Overcash in self-defense, and that the latter was advancing on him with a pistol when shot down.

Wright & Carlton, attorneys, have been employed to assist the solicitor in the prosecution of Abby.

WILL ORGANIZE
LEAGUE TO-DAY

Business Men in James River Valley to Get Together.

Farmers and business men of the James River Valley will meet at 9 o'clock this morning in the office of Mr. John C. Robertson, in the Merchants' Bank Building, for the purpose of forming a permanent organization of the citizens of the valley from this city to Lynchburg. The body will probably be known as the James River Valley League. Preliminary meetings have already been held, and Mr. Walter E. Grant, of Grantland, is temporary president. He will preside to-day, when permanent officers will be chosen, and a set of by-laws will be framed.

Those who are active in the formation of the new organization wish it set out clearly that it will have no land boom feature, but will be for the purpose of bringing about better conditions for the members in the matter of transportation facilities and along other lines which will be helpful to the citizens in that splendid stretch of fertile country.

It is proposed to fashion the organization somewhat after the Civic Improvement League of this city.
SHE HAS NEW EGO.

Woman Advances from France with Personality Completely Changed.

RIVERSIDE, CAL., July 2.—Not since the strange case of "Leonie A. and Leonie B." has there been such a study in dual existence as that shown by Mrs. C. E. Richards, of Riverside.
Mrs. Richards some time ago fell into a trance-like sleep, which lasted two nights and a day, and awoke a different individual with new tastes and desires, and with absolutely no remembrance of her former self.

Food that she was fond of once is distasteful to her now, while she professes a liking for many dishes which formerly she would not touch. A skillful cook before her "sleep" she was forced to begin to learn the art over again with the aid of a cook book.
A talented musician, the pieces which had taken days and weeks of practice to acquire were completely forgotten.
The new self has but a slight understanding of music, although her fingers are as supple as before. Beginning life again with no recollection of the past, the husband of four years' time became, once again, the lover and the delights of courtship were renewed.

Grateful at first for his kindness and consolation, she soon fell completely in love with her own husband.
To all intents and purposes the Mrs.
Richards of to-day and the Mrs. Richards who sank into the trance-like sleep are two distinct individuals.

At the Prevailing Price.

The visit of the Prince of Wales to India cost two hundred and ninety-seven thousand and five hundred and fifty dollars and fifteen have done without that last drink in a country where millions are starving.—Louis-
